I understand Saint John Neumann Catholic School (SJNCS) provides a quality Catholic education, rooted in the Gospel, committed to academic excellence, faith formation, and service to others, developing active community members who model Christianity in both words and actions.

I agree that if my child is accepted to SJNCS, that participation in a two week fee-based Summer Orientation Program is required. (For students entering grades 1-8)

I certify that the information given in this application is complete and accurate, and I understand that to make false statements or omit information within this application may result in denial of admission or dismissal from the school. I also understand that completion of the entrance exam or screening does not guarantee acceptance and that if my child should be admitted to SJNCS, that I will read and abide by policies and procedures outlined in the school handbook.
